EXHIBITOR AGREEMENT
(One signed agreement per market animal)
This form must be completed, signed and turned in with the Fair Entry Form.
Exhibitors will be entered into Market Shows without this form.

I certify that my market animal is being fed by Parent Feed & Drug Administration standards. I have followed all exhibition rules. The animal health products and chemicals used were labeled for animal use and my parent has been advised and has been notified by a knowledgeable and licensed veterinarian for the animal care he wishes to bring to market. I have provided a written certificate of all prior history, with and/or without history, treatment and to whom it will be possible. My parent or guardian accepts total responsibility for following these and other procedures guidelines set by the fair for this animal.

Important Things to Know

All hogs MUST be tagged before weigh-in.

Tagging will not be an option at weigh-in.

If you need assistance tagging your hog, please inform a committee member and assistance can be provided PRIOR to weigh-in day.

Weigh In

Swine drop off will be on Sunday night.
Participants are responsible for offloading
their animal(s).

Drop off times will go by last name.

Committee members will be available for weights from 5-7pm.

Photos will be done at weigh in.

All hogs MUST arrive with RFID tags in their ears.

Tags must be clean and able to be read.

If you are unable to tag your pig before weigh-in, please contact a committee member and assistance will be provided.

Upcoming Events

Keep an eye out on the Fair and Swine Department Facebook pages for clinic dates and volunteer opportunities.

Tentative dates are set for a nutrition clinic in April, jackpot show in May and more clinics following in June and July.
